

STATE OF WASHINGTON
OFFICE OF GOVERNOR JAY INSLEE

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR
AMENDING PROCLAMATIONS 20-05 AND 20-84

20-84.1

Delaying Repeal of RCW 26.10

WHEREAS, on February 29, 2020, I issued Proclamation 20-05, proclaiming a State of Emergency for all counties throughout Washington State as a result of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) outbreak in the United States and confirmed person-to-person spread of COVID-19 in Washington State; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the continued worldwide spread of COVID-19, its significant progression in Washington State, and the high risk it poses to our most vulnerable populations, I have subsequently issued several amendatory proclamations, exercising my emergency powers under RCW 43.06.220 by prohibiting certain activities and waiving and suspending specified laws and regulations; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 disease, caused by a virus that spreads easily from person to person which may result in serious illness or death and has been classified by the World Health Organization as a worldwide pandemic, continues to broadly spread throughout Washington State, significantly increasing the threat of serious associated health risks statewide; and

WHEREAS, I issued Proclamations 20-25, et seq., first entitled “Stay Home – Stay Healthy,” in which I initially prohibited all people in Washington State from leaving their homes except under certain circumstances, which I later amended to “Safe Start – Stay Healthy” County-By-County Phased Reopening, gradually relaxing those limitations based on county-by-county phasing, and on November 16, 2020, again amended 20-25, et seq., to “Stay Safe – Stay Healthy – Rollback of County-By-County Phased Reopening Responding to a COVID-19 Outbreak Surge,” in response to a large surge of new cases of COVID-19, increased hospitalizations and ongoing COVID-19 related deaths in Washington State; and

WHEREAS, despite this guidance, COVID-19-related cases, hospitalizations and deaths have remained very high, putting our people, our health system, and our economy in as dangerous a position as we faced in March 2020; and

WHEREAS, the social distancing required in Proclamation 20-25 et seq., limited court access ordered by the judiciary, directives from public health authorities, and other restrictions issued in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, make access to Washington State Courts extremely limited; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Washington State Supreme Court’s prior orders, many Washington courts have taken important steps to protect public health while ensuring continued access to justice and essential court services, by strictly observing social distancing measures, holding proceedings remotely, suspending many in-building operations, and, among other things, promulgating emergency rules as necessary; and

WHEREAS, despite extraordinary efforts, Washington State Superior Courts face a substantial and long-term backlog of cases. In August 2020, Superior Courts: (1) completed 3,014 civil cases as compared to

6,038 at the same time last year; (2) completed 1,969 criminal cases as compared to 2,940 at the same time last year; and (3) sentenced 1,141 defendants as compared to 2,048 defendants at the same time last year; and

WHEREAS, superior courts are diligently working to maintain essential court functions and move toward greater capacity while protecting the health of staff, lawyers, litigants, jurors, and the public; and

WHEREAS, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6287, Section 905 (Chapter 312, Laws of 2020), repeals RCW 26.10 – relating to third party custody of minors, and Section 907 delays implementation of the repeal to January 1, 2021; and

WHEREAS, a waiver and suspension of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6287, Section 905 (Chapter 312, Laws of 2020) and a portion of Section 907, to further delay to the repeal of RCW 26.10, will give the courts adequate time to transition cases filed before January 1, 2021 under RCW 26.10 to minor guardianships under new RCW 11.130, without which superior courts would be required to reconsider all pending third-party custody cases under the new law, essentially requiring such cases to start anew, delaying a permanent placement for the affected minors, further straining the capacity of the courts, and adding to the ever-mounting backlog; and

WHEREAS, in response to the COVID-19 emergency, on December 30, 2020, I issued 20-84, which waived Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6287, Section 905 (Chapter 312, Laws of 2020), and parts of Section 907. I also prohibited anyone from filing new third party custody cases pursuant to RCW 26.10 after 12:01AM on January 1, 2021; and

WHEREAS, on January 15, 2021, under the provisions of RCW 43.06.220(4), the statutory waivers and suspensions of Proclamations 20-84, were extended by Senate Concurrent Resolution 8402 until the termination of the state of emergency pursuant to RCW 43.06.210, or until rescinded, whichever occurs first; and

WHEREAS, the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic and its progression in Washington State continue to threaten the life and health of our people as well as the economy of Washington State, and remain a public disaster affecting life, health, property or the public peace; and

WHEREAS, the Washington State Department of Health continues to maintain a Public Health Incident Management Team in coordination with the State Emergency Operations Center and other supporting state agencies to manage the public health aspects of the incident; and

WHEREAS, the Washington State Military Department Emergency Management Division, through the State Emergency Operations Center, continues coordinating resources across state government to support the Department of Health and local health officials in alleviating the impacts to people, property, and infrastructure, and continues coordinating with the Department of Health in assessing the impacts and long-term effects of the incident on Washington State and its people.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, as a result of the above-noted situation, and under Chapters 38.08, 38.52 and 43.06 RCW, do hereby proclaim that a State of Emergency continues to exist in all counties of Washington State, that Proclamation 20-05, as amended, remains in effect, and that Proclamation 20-84, is amended to (1) recognize the extensions of statutory waivers and suspensions by the legislature therein until the termination of the state of emergency pursuant to RCW 43.06.210, or until rescinded, whichever occurs first and (2) similarly extend the prohibitions therein until the termination of the COVID-19 State of Emergency, or until rescinded, whichever occurs first.
